

Parent or guardian;

We are pleased that your child is participating in the New Brunswick Student Leadership conference this year.

In compliance with the Right to Information and the Protection of Privacy Act (RTIPPA) we must obtain consent when publishing or disclosing any information of a personal nature with the public.

There will likely be photos and videos taken at the conference while the students are engaged in activities and during their community outreach project with the local elementary schools.

These materials may occasionally be accessed for distribution and published by the media and/or on the NBSLA website (www.nbstudentleadership.ca) and the provincial student council website (www.nbpsrc.ca).

We would like your permission to share these photos of your child with the media, to showcase student leaders in action.

Kindly discuss the above information and sign the section below.

Yours in education,

NBSLA Executive Committee
